

SUMMARY OF TOURO UNIVERSITY CALIFORNIA - COLLEGE OF PHARMACY SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

Welcome to the Touro University California (TUC) College of Pharmacy (COP) Class of 2022. The following scholarship and award opportunities are available to students who have been accepted into our incoming PharmD class:

DEANS SCHOLAR (three awards of $10,000): Recognizes outstanding individuals with documented strengths in academics, leadership and service.

DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP (two awards of $10,000): Recognizes exemplary students from underrepresented or disadvantaged backgrounds who are committed to serving people from all backgrounds with respect, compassion and distinction.

NEW FACE OF PHARMACY AWARD (three awards of $5000): Recognizes underrepresented minorities with leadership ability and commitment to pharmacy.

FIRST GENERATION SCHOLAR (three awards of $5000): Recognizes first generation college students with notable scholarship and service.

RESEARCH SCHOLAR (two awards of $5000): Recognizes incoming students with research experience who are committed to applying these skills to advance pharmacy education and/or practice.

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES AWARD (one award of $5000): Recognizes an incoming student with a demonstrated commitment to the Judaic values of social justice and service to humanity.

WALGREENS DIVERSITY PIPELINE AWARD (three awards of $1000): Recognizes bilingual students with a desire to serve diverse or underserved populations or demonstrate significant efforts to promote diversity and inclusion.

The deadline for applications is February 21, 2018 for the first round of reviews, and April 11, 2018 for the second round of reviews. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

To apply, send your application to Mr. Tony Williams (Anthony.williams@tu.edu) who will forward it to the Scholarship Committee.

TUC COP - Deans Scholar
Three awards of $10,000 will be made

These awards recognize outstanding individuals with documented strengths in academics, leadership, and service. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022

Review criteria

- Scholastic achievement
- Leadership ability and potential
- Commitment to service
- Career goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- One letter of recommendation
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP - Diversity Scholarship

Two awards of $10,000 will be made

These awards recognize exemplary individuals from underrepresented or disadvantaged backgrounds who are committed to serving people from all backgrounds with respect, compassion, and distinction. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022
- Underrepresented or disadvantaged background

Review criteria

- Commitment to service
- Career goals
- Potential impact on advancing diversity goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award (including the underrepresented/disadvantaged background represented). The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- One letter of recommendation
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP - New Face of Pharmacy Award
Three awards of $5000 will be made

These awards recognize underrepresented minorities with leadership ability and commitment to pharmacy. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022
- Underrepresented minority

Review criteria

- Leadership ability and potential
- Commitment to pharmacy
- Career goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP – First Generation Scholar

Three awards of $5000 will be made

These awards recognize first generation college students who demonstrate notable scholarship and service. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022
- First generation college student

Review criteria

- Scholastic achievement
- Commitment to service
- Career goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP - Research Scholar
Two awards of $5000 will be made

These awards recognize students with research experience who are committed to applying these skills to advance pharmacy education and/or practice. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022
- Research experience

Review criteria

- Commitment to using research skills to advance the profession of pharmacy
- Career goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP - Empowering Communities Award

One award of $5000 will be made

This award recognizes a student with a demonstrated commitment to the Judaic values of social justice and service to humanity. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022

Review criteria

- Commitment to social justice and service to humanity
- Career goals

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)

TUC COP - Walgreens Diversity Pipeline Awards

Three awards of $1000 will be made

These awards recognize multi-lingual students who are committed to serving diverse or underserved populations OR demonstrate significant efforts to promote diversity and inclusion. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2018 PharmD curriculum.

Eligibility criteria

- Accepted in the Touro University California Pharm.D. Class of 2022
- Fluent in at least one language other than English
- Good academic standing (minimum GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale)

Review criteria

- Commitment to serving diverse or underserved populations OR significant efforts to promote diversity and inclusion
- Leadership ability and potential
- Preference given to those with an interest in community pharmacy practice

Submit for review

- One-page essay describing why you are deserving of this award. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- Consent to release name and photo for use by Walgreens (complete Media Talent Release form)
- PharmCAS application information (no need to resubmit)