

Frequently asked Questions

Enclosed are descriptions of available scholarships. Feel free to apply for any scholarship for which you are eligible.

- Kindly include a one-page essay describing why you deserve this award.
- Your essay should describe how you satisfy specific scholarship eligibility criteria.
- The essay must be single-spaced, Times New Roman font size 12, 1" margin.
- One letter of recommendation attesting to your scholastic achievement, leadership, commitment to service etc. The letter writer cannot be a relative.

Please note: You may use parts of your personal statement in PharmCAS.

It is recommended that you write a separate one-page essay describing why you deserve these awards.... If you decide to apply for multiple awards, consider writing separate essays for each Award.

Note: Letters of recommendation in support of your application should be sent to my attention Mr. Tony Williams (Anthony.williams@tu.edu). I will forward your letter of reference (LOR) to the Scholarship Committee.

Typically, letters of recommendation are written on letter-headed papers

Application Deadlines

The deadlines for applications are February 28th 2019 for the first round of reviews, and April 30th 2019 for the second round of reviews. Activation of the award is contingent on enrollment in the College of Pharmacy at Touro University California and start of the Fall 2019 PharmD curriculum.