PRMC 630 – ACUTE CARE

(2 UNITS) CRN# 13219

ONLY OPEN TO P2S

DRS. MONICA DONNELLEY & JEREMIAH DUBY

Schedule: TBA

10 sessions

(4:30-6:00PM)

Description: The purpose of the Acute Care Elective is to provide students with advanced topics, training, and skills in preparation for acute care learning experiences. Each class will explore a subject that overlaps and intersects common populations and problems in the acute care setting. Additionally, the format of each class (below) is organized to emphasize fundamental activities (e.g. Journal Club, Case Conference) required for success on rotation.

PRMC 633B – PHARMACY CALCULATIONS (0.5 UNIT) CRN# 13220

DR. MICHAEL ELLERBY

Schedule: Tuesdays

1/19/2021

1/26/2021

2/23/2021

3/2/2021

4/27/2021

(4:30 – 6:00PM)

Description: The overall purpose of PRMC 633B is to provide P1 students with a more intensive problem-solving experience (akin to a “lab”) designed to improve their skill level in support of their calculations work in PRMC 606. Participating faculty will offer a series of example problems, and problem-solving strategies, on calculations topics that have recently been covered in PRMC 606 (or that support these lectures). PRMC 633B sessions specifically support the following PRMC 606 calculations lectures: Calculations IV, V, and VI.

IPEC 690 – PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS

(1 UNIT) CRN# 13222

PAISLEY ROSENGREN, MS, LMFT

Schedule: January 11, 2021

Mondays (5:00-6:30PM)

Description: In Pathways to Success, students will be given the opportunity to learn about and practice evidence-based study strategies, test-taking strategies, and time management skills. The course will also cover maintaining well-being, student leadership, and coping strategies to manage stressful life experiences.

This interactive, engaging, and self-reflective course starts on Monday, January 11, 2021. The class will meet on Mondays from 5:00-6:30.

If you would like more details about the course or have any questions about registering for this class please contact Paisley Rosengren, MS, LMFT- paisley.rosengren@tu.edu.
