TUC DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

Up to three awards of $10,000

These awards recognize exemplary students from underrepresented or disadvantaged backgrounds who are committed to serving people from all backgrounds with respect, compassion, and distinction.

Eligibility checklist
- Full time Pharm.D. student in good standing
- Underrepresented or disadvantaged background

Review criteria
- Academic achievement
- Career goals
- Leadership
- Potential impact on advancing diversity goals

Submit for review
- Current resume or CV which documents leadership experience
- Unofficial pharmacy school transcript
- Personal statement: including underrepresented/disadvantaged background represented, career goals and how applicant’s background and experiences will be used to advance the health of the underserved
- One-page essay describing what you have learned from experiences and understandings of hardship or social injustice, along with how that learning process has prepared you to serve underserved populations. The essay must be single-spaced, Time New Roman font size 12, 1" margins.
- One letter of recommendation

Deadline: Friday, May 8, 2020 by 3:00 PM